

TRUSTEE JENNIFER CHEN

Jennifer Chen was elected to the Winnipeg School Division Board of Trustees in 2018. Jennifer was born in Nanjing, China and came to Canada in 2009 to study a Master's degree in Kinesiology at the University of Manitoba. Jennifer serves on the board for Family Dynamics, Asian Heritage Society of Manitoba, Asian Women of Winnipeg, and Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives.

Jennifer is President of the Women of Colour Community Leadership Initiative, a non-profit volunteer-based organization that advocates for and inspires women in Manitoba. Jennifer is an award-winning activist and was recognized as one of the four "Immigrant Women of Inspiration" in 2021 in Canada. Jennifer was a nominee of YMCA-YWCA Women of Distinction Award.

Jennifer is known for her work organizing anti-racism campaigns to raise awareness and fight against racism and sexism. Jennifer's passion is connecting with communities and fighting for justice. Jennifer is a proud mother of two young children.